Australian Feminist Judgments: Righting and Rewriting Law ...

Australian Feminist Judgments: Righting and Rewriting Law is a marvellous sweep through all aspects of contemporary Australian judgments through these rewritten decisions. They range from the shared parenting defining decision of *Goode v Goode*1 to U v U2 about contested relocation of children in the Family Court. By re-imagining and rewriting well-known cases through a feminist lens Australian Feminist Judgments: Righting and Rewriting Law enlivens the reader's imagination about the real transformative potential of feminist legal reasoning. The book's premise is to explore the possibilities and limitations of feminist jurisprudence by rewriting cases from a feminist perspective while maintaining that the decisions must be legally plausible.
