The primary way out of trauma in this mentality is to seek vengeance or revenge, to lower the other while raising up one's self. In the mode of "beyond doer and done to," something shifts. People, even those who have hurt us, are no longer experienced one-dimensionally, as either all good or all bad.

Beyond Blame - Tricycle: The Buddhist Review

From my Beyond Doer and Done to 95 point of view, it is somewhat confusing to call this a third because, rather than creating space, it sucks it up. With this negative of the third (per haps it could be called "the negative third"), there is an erasure of the You'll practice yoga meditation, japa, mantra, pranayama. You do all of these things because you think you are the doer. But when the realization comes to you that you're not the doer then you do not have to do anything, there is nothing to do. So know the truth about yourself. I am not the doer therefore I have absolutely nothing to do.
