The Hours: Study Guide | SparkNotes

The Hours follows three women through one day in their lives. One of the narrative strands explores the day in 1923 when Virginia Woolf begins to write Mrs. Dalloway. Another centers around a day in the life of Laura Brown, an American housewife, in 1949, in which she spends part of her time reading Mrs. Dalloway. The third narrative takes place on a day in the late twentieth century, in which ...

In The Hours, Cunningham works to find the appropriate words and imagery to describe Virginia's worst periods. Some of it, like this passage, is terrifying: "She does not look directly into the oval mirror that hangs above the basin. She is aware of her reflected movements in the glass but does not permit herself to look.
