No Promises in the Wind is a historical novel by Irene Hunt, first published in 1970. The novel takes place in 1932, during the Great Depression. The main character's name is Josh, a young boy who is particularly good at playing the piano, a skill he has been taught by his mother. Josh and his best friend, Howie, are praised by their teacher, Miss Crowne but this doesn't mean much to Josh, who is used to being ridiculed and criticized by his father Stefan.
