Author and physician Louise Aronson wants to change that. In her new book, Elderhood, she argues that old age or "elderhood" is a much richer, more nuanced experience than most people understand, and that treating it like an illness or pathology is the wrong approach. She believes people need to embrace elderhood as another normal phase of life—just like childhood and adulthood—with its ...

How to Create a Personal Roadmap — to get from where you ...

The roadmap is updated too frequently. Consequently, the team may not trust the leadership to make strategic, long-range decisions. Detailed requirements weigh down the roadmap. Remember, a key aspect of a project roadmap is its high-level view. Don't get so mired in the details that it becomes dense or difficult to understand at a glance.
