My concept, Still Moving, is the skills framework and title for my latest book on how to lead change, built from my 2015 round of global research. Considered a genuine breakthrough in thinking in how to lead change in today's uncertain, disruptive and interconnected yet dislocated world, Still Moving challenges us to cultivate a set of inner capacities (stillness) as the starting point for leading any change in the system around us (moving).

Still Moving — DEBORAH Rowland

Being in a senior position in large, leading, health insurance company, I found this book to be insightful and helpful in order to pave the way for some reluctant employees with regards to change. Incorporating bits and pieces has enabled me to "lead mindful change" with these and employees, who are now accepting that not all change is a bad thing.
