Braid the strips until you reach the length of the rug you want to make. Square or rectangle shaped rug – Make a bunch of braids which are similar in length. Lay down the same length braids side-by-side, pin them together and finally sew them to keep them in place. Oval or round shaped rug – You need very long, continuous braids to create these shapes because you have to coil them to get an oval or circle. Coil the braid into a spiral shape, pin it together then sew to keep it all in place.

Handmade Braided Rugs | MOTHER EARTH NEWS

Oh my gosh! My daughter sent to this website. I've been trying for a least 40 years to find out how to make a braided rug with 4 strands and not sewing. I used to sit on my great-grandmothers lap and watch her make scatter rugs. She use large safety pins "tuck" the ends through. I also used cotton scraps.
