The World Is In Me

The World is in Me is surely a narrative of fantasy world dropped from the imagination of the writer,who with the idea of a co-existing 2D world proves his calibre as a writer. The prologue itself is so intriguing and captivating and proves the book to be a real page-turner.The narrative though not so compromising ,is too good for a debut writer.Conclusively,this is a book worth your time and patience in its genre.

More than 225,000 Americans have now died from COVID-19, a tragedy so vast that it's hard to comprehend. Some people have searched for understanding by noting that the death toll is greater than the number of U.S. deaths in our last five wars combined, others have equated it to experiencing 9/11 on 70 consecutive days.. But when I hear there have been 225,000 deaths, I think about the ...
